TUESDAY, MAY 3. 1743.

MVSEVM BRITANNICVM

Stockholm, April 23.

IN proportion as we receive good News from Abo, the ceaſing the reſt of the Orders find it to parry the Thruſts of the Peaſants, and to put off the Election. In the mean time, our Armaments are carried on with all imaginable Vigour, and, in all human Appearance, the King will take upon himſelf the Command of the Army. The States have reſtored the Chamberlain Adlerſtedt, and Lieutenant-Colonel Ginterfeldt, to their Seats in the Houſe of Nobles, out of which they were ejected by the famous Dyet of 1738, on account of their being ſuſpected to be too much devoted to the Service of Ruſſia.

Vienna, April 20. The Empreſs Dowager, and the Archduchess Mary Magdalen, are indiſpoſed; Count Frederick de Harach arrived here Yeſterday from Bruſſels, with all his Family. Count Dhona, Envoy Extraordinary and Pleniporentiary from the King of Pruſſia, had the Honour, on the 17th of this Month, to preſent to the Queen 26 Officers, who are to ſerve as Volunteirs in her Majeſty's Army, together with the Colonel, who is to be a kind of Governor. They are to rank in every Reſpect with our own. This is look'd upon here as the fulleſt Teſtimony his Pruſſian Majeſty could give of his perfect Reſpect for, and great Confidence in the Councils and Meaſures of this Court.

Franckfort, May 1. We are extremely uneaſy at our preſent Situation. Tho' the Earl of Stair treats us with all the Reſpect imaginable, and has hitherto demanded nothing but what is very reaſonable, yet we are perfectly ſenſible that he endeavours to conceal from us, as much as poſſible, his Motions; and that he has ſome Deſign of very great Conſequence on Foot, though we know not what it is. His Imperial Majeſty would willingly have drawn from the Dyet ſome publick Declaration of their Diſcontent at the March of theſe Troops, but that was found impracticable. It was, on the contrary, reſolved, much to the Diſpleaſure of the Imperial Party, that a Letter ſhould be drawn up, directed to his Britannick Majeſty and the States General of the United Provinces, beſeeching them to join their good Offices with thoſe of the Empire, in order to induce the Powers at War to conſent to an immediate Accommodation.

Limbourg on the Lhan, May 2. The Engliſh, Auſtrian, and Hanoverian Troops actually paſs'd the Lhan within theſe few Days in three Places. The Hanoverians march'd thro' this Town, the Engliſh thro' Dietz, and the Auſtrians by Naſſau. The Engliſh have, at their Requeſt, their Quarters aſſign'd them in the largeſt Villages; they are all choice Troops, but eſpecially the Dragoons, which are the fineſt we ever ſaw. We expect that the Earl of Stair will paſs ſome Days at Dietz, with certain Officers of Diſtinction. This Week the Auſtrian Artillery arriv'd at Neiuwied, and it is very conſiderable.

Paris, May 1. Our Militia was drawn in the following manner; they meaſured, as they aſſembled, all the young Fellows by 30 at a time; ſuch as were not of a proper Height, or, in point of Conſtitution, not ſtrong enough for the Service, were diſmiſs'd. Amongſt 30 Balls there were 6 Black. Theſe they drew out of a Hat, over againſt the Magiſtrate, his Clerk, and the Curate of their Quarter. The Room in which all this was performed, was ſurrounded by a Party of 30 Invalids, with their Bayonets at the Head of their Muſquets. As ſoon as a Man drew a black Ball, he was carried into another Chamber, where they took his Subſcription, his Name, Place of Abode, &c. and then gave him a Blue and White Cockade. There were 110,000 Declarations, and, as by the Advertiſement which directed the Days of Drawing in each Quarter, not only ſuch as had regiſter'd themſelves, but all others within the Deſcription of the Edict, were commanded to appear and abide their Lot; many took Advantage of this, who had not given their Names to the Commiſſaries, and came at the appointed Time; ſo that we reckon this Draught of the 6th Man will produce us at leaſt 10, or 12,000 Soldiers, tho' at firſt we would have been glad of 8000.

IRELAND.

Killybeggs, April 17. On the 9th Inſtant Mr. Richard Chaplin killed, in this Bay, the largeſt Whale that has yet been ſeen on the Coaſt; it was a Female, upwards of 60 Feet long. The Tongue alone filled eight Hogſheads, and the Bone is conſiderably longer than any formerly taken by this Gentleman.

Dublin, April 23. Thurſday laſt Stephen Trotter, Eſq; Son of Thomas Trotter, Eſq; LL.D. was married to Miſs Carter, Daughter of the Right Hon. Thomas Carter, Eſq; Maſter of the Rolls. A young Lady of great Beauty, fine Accompliſhments, and a Fortune of 5000 l. The Ceremony was performed by the Right Rev. Lord Biſhop of Elphin.

Laſt Week Michael Farrelly, and James Leary, both under Sentence of Death, found Means to eſcape out of the County Jail of Kilkenny, and have got clear off.

Dublin, April 26. Yeſterday Mr. George Ribton, an eminent Mercer in Dame-ſtreet, was elected an Alderman of this City, in the Room of Joſeph Nuttal, Eſq; who hath reſigned.

The Incorporated Society for promoting Engliſh Proteſtant Schools have received from the Right Hon. Lord Palmerſtown, by the Hands of Robert Roberts, Eſq; a Benefaction of 100 l. Sterling.

Catherine Robiſſon, alias Hart, born in Kells in the County of Meath, 100 Years old laſt Chriſtmas, has lately got an entire Set of new Nails on her Fingers and Thumbs: She has likewiſe got ſeveral young Teeth, the laſt of which appeared about three Weeks ago, and ſhe has one now growing which gives her great Pain. Her Hair is not gray, but ſtill retains its primitive Colour: She has her Memory and Underſtanding perfectly well, but has been blind for ſeveral Years, and, moreover, is extremely poor with a very good Appetite.

This Nation was never more healthy than at preſent, there being no epidemical Diſtempers of any Kind amongſt us;——but a new Diſeaſe appears amongſt Horſes, which it is ſuppoſed, is owing to the late cold, intemperate Weather.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briſtol, April 30. Laſt Saturday one Cornelius Callahan, belonging to the Mortar Bombketch, going with the Crew to impreſs Men from on board the Bremen Factor, then lying within the Holms, was ſhot by one of the Bremen Crew, with a Blunderbaſs loaded with Swan-ſhot. May 2, 1743.

To the WORTHY ELECTORS of the Borough of Southwark.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Affection and Zeal You have ſhewn to me thro' the Courſe of the Poll, and the Efforts you have made to preſerve your Liberties, command my moſt ſincere Thanks. And as it is notorious what unjuſtifiable Means have been purſued to obtain a Majority, contrary to the Right of Election eſtabliſhed in you by Parliament; ſo I beg Leave not only to congratulate you on your Firmneſs and Reſolution, but alſo to aſſure you, that I will ever retain a grateful Senſe of your Favours; and that I am determined to uſe my beſt Endeavours for maintaining all the Rights and Liberties of this great Borough, againſt the Violences which have been uſed to deſtroy them; and am,

GENTLEMEN,

Your ever Obedient Servant,

ALEXANDER HUME.

N. B. The Numbers, upon caſting up the Books, were, for Mr. Hume, 792, for Mr. Hammond, 863. But a Scrutiny being demanded and granted, it is not to be doubted but it will appear, that Mr. Hume hath a great Majority of Legal Votes.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.
SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have uſed it, for its tranſcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the moſt exquiſite Perfection poſſible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpreſſible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a ſurpriſing Handſomneſs to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly ſmooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can ſooner or more certainly take away all diſagreeable Redneſs, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughneſs, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Diſcolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles ſo perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become ſo incomparably fine, clear, plump, ſoft, and beautifully fair, as to cauſe Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a moſt engaging reſplendent Brightneſs to the whole Countenance, and cauſes ſparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairneſs, Smoothneſs, and moſt charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFIER prepared from the leaſt Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmleſs and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has alſo a pleaſant Scent, will not ſoil the fineſt Lawn, and is very agreeable to uſe.

But theſe its admirable Properties, by which it vaſtly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpoſe, have occaſioned many to imitate it, under various other Names, beware therefore of ſuch Impoſitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given ſuch univerſal Satisfaction to ſo many Ladies of Diſtinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop above-mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where elſe in England.

For the immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN, tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever,
And alſo of
IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occaſion'd, or of ever ſo long Standing,
The Famous and Ineſtimable
PROLIFICK ELIXIR,
The higheſt, richeſt and moſt powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and infallible Cure for BARRENNESS in Women and IMPOTENCY in Men in the Univerſe, and which it at once accompliſhes without the leaſt Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thouſands have experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raiſing all the Fluids from their languid, depreſſed State, to one more florid and ſparkling, opening all Obſtructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreaſing the Animal Spirits, reſtoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently repleniſhing the criſpy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moiſture, and thereby invigorating it to ſuch a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by thoſe who have experienced how exceedingly and ſenſibly it renovates, recruits, and powerfully ſtrengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright, lively Diſpoſition, baniſhes Melancholy, and inſpires Mirth and Gladneſs of Heart beyond Expreſſion. Abundance of Ladies, who for ſeveral Years were deemed incurably Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and become Fruitful; and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by faſt living, or otherwiſe, had render'd themſelves incapable of Procreation, have ſoon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inſomuch, that very many illuſtrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almoſt inconſolable, are now bleſt with happy Iſſue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs. It rectifies all Diſorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, and in all Weakneſs of Body, or Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, is a moſt infallible Reſtorative, and even keeps back the Effects of Old Age itſelf. It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleaſant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon-Yard in the Minories, at 5 s. a Bottle, with Directions.

LONDON: Printed for M. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-Noſter-Row,
